

>> Round 1 <<

News And Trivia

1/ Which pop megastar accidentally burned down her home gym after leaving lit candles unattended – making this at least the third time she's been known to set her house on fire this way?

Britney Spears

2/ Captain Tom Moore became the eldest person to have a number one single at the age of 99 last week. Who did he steal the title from?

Tom Jones (who was 68 at the time)

3/ Which member of the Friends cast revealed they've spent most of their lockdown eating homemade cookies in the nude?

a/ Matthew Perry

b/ Matt Le Blanc

c/ Courtney Cox

4/ TRUE OR FALSE: Premier League football clubs are planning on putting cardboard cutouts of fans in the seats when the season starts behind closed doors again.

TRUE

5/ Channel 4 has commissioned a show where cameras will be attached to celebrities' dogs so we can see them going about their daily lives. What's the show called?

Snoop Dogs

6/ An indie supergroup has recorded a single in support of the NHS. It's a cover of the Britpop song Chasing Rainbows. Who did the original?

Shed Seven

7/ Antibodies from which animal are being touted helpful in finding a cure for Covid-19?

a) Otters

b) Pandas

c) Llamas

8/ TRUE OR FALSE: Katy Perry claims that her unborn child was making 'love-heart' gestures in utero during her last ultrasound scan.

FALSE – She said it was sticking its middle finger up

9/ Which Fox News star has Donald Trump been advising to sue the New York Times – even going so far as to lend him his own lawyer?

Sean Hannity

10/ To the nearest £10 million, how much money did the live-action version of Cats lose at the box office?

£90 million