The Making Round

Depending on your circumstances, here are a few options for arts and crafts tasks that you can have teams complete while you all take a well earned 20 minute fag/drink/piss break.

IF YOU HAVE ACCESS TO AN EGG IN YOUR LOCKDOWN RATIONS

Using an egg and whatever arts and crafts materials you can find, make a decorative egg celebrity. Points should be awarded for imagination, execution and original punning.

To give some examples that won't risk spoiling your good idea (because they'd be boring as fuck if you tried these): Egg Harris, Egg Norton, Prince Eggward.

IF YOU DON'T HAVE ACCESS TO AN EGG

Using whatever items you have lying around your home, recreate an iconic album cover in your living room and take a picture of it. (If teams are split across different households, feel free to design imaginary liner notes for any such album – where each member of the band can get an individual profile shot in keeping with the album aesthetic)
