Making Round

Depending on your circumstances, here are a few options for activities or arts and crafts tasks that you can have teams complete while you all take a well earned 20 minute fag/drink/piss break.

1/ If you have a piece of fruit, a vegetable or some other comestible to spare, use whatever else you have to hand to transform it into a celebrity.

2/ Design a poster for a new public health campaign, fronted by a well-known personality, to help clarify the government's rather confusing guidelines.

3/ Film yourself doing a short lip sync presentation to an advert jingle of your choice.
