Making Round

Depending on your circumstances, here are a few options for activities or arts and crafts tasks that you can have teams complete while you all take a well earned 20 minute fag/drink/piss break.

1/ Using whatever costumes, hair and make-up you can muddle together, reshoot your own star-studded celebrity lip-sync version of Peter Kay and Tony Christie's (Is This The Way To) Amarillo?

2/ To help Harry and Meghan avoid detection by paparazzi when they're out and about walking in LA, design them some new his-n-hers face masks that will help them blend in to their new surroundings.

3/ Fashioning whatever backdrop you can out of household materials, recreate and photograph an iconic movie poster. Points to be awarded for ambition, accuracy and choice.
