

>> Round 1 <<

News And Trivia

1/ Like absolutely everything else, this year's Eurovision Song Contest has been cancelled because of coronavirus. What was the name of the UK entrant?

James Newman

2/ Who landed himself in scalding hot water for blaming the postponement of gigs at the Royal Albert Hall on "fucking bat eating, wet market animal selling, virus making greedy bastards"

Bryan Adams

3/ British Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab famously has a black belt. In what?

a/ Karate

b/ Jiu-jitsu

c/ Keepin' It Real

4/ TRUE OR FALSE: Rock'n'roll legend Little Richard was the officiant for Bruce Willis and Demi Moore's wedding.

True

5/ Film and TV production companies around the world are looking to which soap opera for tips on how to film actors safely and realistically during social distancing?

Neighbours

6/ The Reading and Leeds Festival won't be going ahead this year. For one point can you name any of the three acts who were due to headline the main stage each night?

Stormzy | Liam Gallagher | Rage Against The Machine

7/ After getting a record-breaking number one for his 100th birthday, which position did Captain Tom Moore slide to for his second week in the UK Top 40?

a/ No. 2

b/ No. 11

c/ No. 21

8/ TRUE OR FALSE: The makers of the Netflix hit Tiger King are now producing a new documentary about the night when Siegfried and Roy's Las Vegas show was interrupted by Montecore the tiger trying to eat Roy live on stage?

True

9/ Which American senator took place in a Zoom committee meeting with Red Hot Chili Peppers and Prince memorabilia hanging behind him in the background of his home office?

Bernie Sanders

10/ According to some very vigorous research conducted by the Daily Mail, how many minutes worth of sex scenes appear across all 12 episodes of the BBC's adaptation of Normal People?

Two points if you get it dead on; one point within three minutes either side.

41 minutes